

Brother Michael Segvich

50th Jubilee – 2018

Brother Michael Segvich is a member of the Congregation of Christian Brothers (founded by Edmund Rice) and is celebrating his Golden Jubilee in 2018.

A native Chicagoan with his parents coming from the Bridgeport neighborhood (St. Jerome Croatian Parish), Br. Michael grew up in Oak Lawn where he and his family had been long-time parishioners at St. Gerald Church.

Br. Michael joined the Christian Brothers after having been taught by them at St. Laurence High School in Burbank and graduated from Lewis College (the “other” Christian Brothers) in May of 1972. He spent most of the past 48 years in education ministry as a teacher, coach, moderator, board director, chairman of the board, director of education, athletic director, religious province consultant, religious province director of development/advancement. He most proudly identifies with his ministry as Principal for 25 years at 6 different schools—5 high schools and one elementary school. Br. Michael served at schools in Illinois, California, Michigan, and New York.

Br. Michael recently retired from his ministry as Principal and has accepted his new ministry as Coordinator of Retirement Fund for Religious in the Office for Religious in the Archdiocese of Chicago. He looks forward to coordinating the continuing drive to assist religious as they reach their retirement years after having ministered so faithfully and strongly in the vineyards of the Lord for a very long time!
