My favorite thing about being a religious Sister/Brother/Priest: The belonging to something bigger than myself.

I receive the most joy from: making a good connection with someone.

Why be a religious today: Today the world is filled with 'lack of connection, disharmony, pain, brokenness and injustice, judgement'. The religious life publically identifies with and works with others to bring 'connection, harmony, healing, justice and acceptance'.

List one BEST PRACTICE you'd like to share with your colleagues. Having a working team.
