

CAVocation A Voices

Sister Joni Luna
Sisters of Providence
Saint Mary of-the-Woods
Indiana

On Saturday, August 4, 2021, Sister Joni Luna made her perpetual profession of vows.

Prior to becoming a Sister of Providence, Sister Joni Luna, SP, felt lost and began a journey of discovering her true purpose.

“As my GPS says, when I have taken a wrong turn, ‘recalculating,’” Sister Joni commented. “I recalculated my path and began to pursue my spirituality, which I had neglectfully left out of my calculations.”

That simple recalculation led Sister Joni to the Sisters of Providence of Saint Mary-of-the-Woods, Indiana. On Sept. 17, 2012, Sister Joni made real her calling by entering the Sister of Providence and on Saturday, Aug. 14, 2021, Sister Joni fulfilled her call to Providence by professing final vows with the Congregation during a ceremony at the Church of the Immaculate Conception at Saint Mary-of-the-Woods.

Read the full article HERE

Sister Joni's favorite thing about being a religious: I never know what God has in store for me. My life is like a box of chocolates. I never know what I'm going to get that day. But it's always a sweet treat