

CAVocation Voices A

Name: Saul Garcia

CAVA Connection: Webmaster for CAVA. I have been working with CAVA since 2008, when I created the first website.

Ministry: Director of Operations at Bible League International for 10 years

Birthplace: Mexico

Favorite Pastime / Hobby: My past time is spent coaching soccer to boys and girls from ages 5 to 15 years old.

What book is currently on your bedside table? Don't get to read as much as I would like, but my son loves for me to read to him, so on his bedside table he has "Curious George" stories book.

Favorite TV Show: Seinfeld

Favorite Movie: Shawshank Redemption

Favorite Vacation Spot: Mexico

I've always wanted to visit: Rome, Vatican City

I receive the most joy from: Spending time with my family, hanging out with my 6-year-old son.

Previous ministries: I attend Quigley North HS, which ironically it is now Archdiocese of Chicago. I went on to work for NCCV National Coalition for Church Vocations for numerous years. Now I am working for Bible League International.

What are you passionate about? Teaching the younger generation about the values of hard work, dedication and never giving up. Letting them know that they can find peace, strength, and guidance in God. That to walk with God is fruitful and amazing.

How do you relax? I relax by doing DIY projects at home and for family members and listening to music.
