I've always wanted to visit: Japan

My favorite thing about being a religious Brother: I love being a Brother because it gives me the opportunity to work and minister one-on-one, with the people of God. I get to share and live the experience of the Gospel sitting with them in the pews.

I receive the most joy from: Preparing children and young adults to receive the Sacraments

Why be a religious today: It is a life of following every single day the poor and chaste Christ. It is full of many exciting moments of wonder and awe.

Previous ministries: Director of Religious Education, High School theology Teacher
